INTRODUCTION

The Malta Vocational Centre (MVC) and the Maltese Italian Chamber of Commerce (MICC), together with ARCES University College and Arancia-ICT Srl, organize the Conference “JobMatch 2020. The future of online recruiting between Italy and Malta”. The aim is to promote the JobMatch 2020 Web Platform and the culture of Blue and Circular Economy (B.C.E.) as an opportunity to facilitate the workers’ mobility in the cross-border cooperation area Italy-Malta, in accordance with the project objectives.

JobMatch 2020 aims to support the definition of networks, the creation of a multifunctional portal aimed at matching the supply and demand of work, the establishment of a transnational centre for consulting services, tutoring, e-couching orientation, and training periods in Maltese and Sicilian companies, in order to facilitate the professional integration of the unemployed, NEET, disadvantaged subjects, students.

To this end, “JobMatch 2020. The future of online recruiting between Italy and Malta” has been structured to integrate the management of new experiences, new practices developed by the actors in this field and the sharing of new development hypotheses.

Experts, Innovators, Entrepreneurs, Academics, Politicians, Operators of the labor market, Citizens will intervene by making a personal contribution on the theme of the Conference and an added value to the project.

Finally, the Conference will be a place in which examine in depth the JobMatch2020 project contents (platform) in a testing and Q&A session.

Keywords: jobmatch, blue economy, circularity, augmented city, ICT, cross-border cooperation, creativity, social innovation, social inclusion, new trajectories/perspectives, cross-cutting paths.
